

Speech & Hearing Department

Introduction:-

The Department of Speech, Hearing and Communication is one of the core technical department of CRC Nagpur speech, Hearing and Communication department deals with

Objectives:-

The major objectives of the department of speech, hearing communication are to impart professional training , render clinical services, conduct research & educate the public on issues related to speech, hearing & communication.

Role and Activities:-

- 1) Clinical Services
- 2) Manpower Development
- 3) Community Awareness Programs
- 4) Short term training program
- 5) Research program

Function of the Department:-

Function of the department as follows, assessment diagnosis & intervention of hearing, speech, language, social communication, cognitive communication disorder in children and adults. Awareness generation in community about RPWD. Research in the area of speech & Hearing.

Services Offered:-

- Hearing evaluation.
- Hearing screening for new born.
- Speech, Language & communication evaluation.
- Hearing aid selection, trial & fitting under ADIP scheme
- Auditory training.
- Voice therapy.

- Articulation therapy
- Dysphagia therapy.
- Fluency therapy.
- Neuromotor speech disorder therapy.
- Language therapy.
- Outreach services.
- Parental & sibling counseling.
- Public education.
- Extension services – camps in rural area.

- Counseling of PwDs, Parents, Siblings etc.
Counseling is important aspect in intervention process. PwDs parent, siblings provide counseling & supports to assist special needs & support to facilitate the integration of the PwDs into the family. Speech and hearing department do provide counseling services.

- Course of the Department:
RCI recognized DISLI course, 2 yrs course is proposed for 2020-22.